

Oh the Places You'll Go!

Key values

- ❖ Bravery – for travelling the world and experiencing new cultures.
- ❖ Self-Belief – to participate in new experiences.

Key Vocab

- ❖ Northern Hemisphere – the half of the Earth that lies north of the Equator.
- ❖ Southern Hemisphere - the half of the Earth that lies south of the Equator.
- ❖ Arctic – relating to the regions around the North Pole.
- ❖ Antarctic – relating to the regions around the South Pole.
- ❖ Costal – located or bordering near a coast.
- ❖ Source – a place where the river begins.
- ❖ Mouth – where the river enters a lake, larger river or ocean.
- ❖ Island – a body of land surrounded by water.

Geography

- ❖ To name and locate countries and capital cities in the United Kingdom.
- ❖ To recognise key human and physical characteristics in the UK and rivers.
- ❖ To investigate and summarise different costal landmarks (natural and man-made).
- ❖ To name European countries, continents and major oceans on a map.
- ❖ To identify the position and significance of the Tropics of Cancer and Capricorn.
- ❖ Understanding the key physical and human characteristics of a major city (Paris).
- ❖ To explore major rivers and mountain ranges within the UK.
- ❖ To identify the position of the Equator, Northern Hemisphere and Southern Hemisphere.
- ❖ To compare time zones in different countries.

Music

- ❖ To listen and explore different French and Italian composers.

Design and Technology

- ❖ To know the principles of a varied diet.
- ❖ To design and evaluate their own pizza.
- ❖ To use a variety of cooking techniques.

French

- ❖ To use the phrase what time is it? To use French phrases to describe the time.

Art

- ❖ To know the life and works of Antoni Gaudi the Spanish architect.
- ❖ To use Gaudi's techniques to create a mosaic based on nature.