

History

- The Stone Age timeline stems from 2.5 million years ago to 3000BCE.
- To know the chronology of the Stone Age to Iron Age.
  - ❖ Palaeolithic
  - ❖ Mesolithic
  - ❖ Neolithic
  - ❖ Bronze Age
  - ❖ Iron age
- To compare and contrast homes from Stone Age to Iron Age with our homes.
- That Skara Brae was an ancient village in the Orkney Islands, which arachnologists found in 1850. That the villagers were hunters and farmers.
- Stonehenge is a structure possibly used for religious ceremonies and burials.

Music

- That Stone Age people used animal bones to create instruments.
- Music can be created by tapping stones together.

Design and Technology

- How technology has advanced throughout the ages.
- I can make a moving pneumatics model of a mammoth.

Art and Design

- Cave paintings were the first drawings known at the time.
- Replicate how charcoal would have been used for cave paintings.

Geography

- Britain is an island.
- That the UK has changed from the Stone Age period.
- Types of settlement and land use throughout the ages.

Key vocab

BCE/CE – Before Common Era/Common Era.

Archaeology - The study of things that people made, used and left behind.

Prehistoric – the form of life that existed before people appeared on Earth.

Bronze/Stone/Iron Age – These are three different early periods of time.

Neolithic – a period of Stone Age when people started farming.

Mesolithic – A period of Stone Age when smaller stone tools were used.

Palaeolithic – Early humans made shopping tools out of stone.

Civilisation – A group of people with their own languages and way of life.

Doggerland – An area of land, now submerged beneath the north Sea that connected Britain to Europe.

Key Values

- Bravery – Stone Age people were brave hunters.
  - Wisdom – Stone Age people realised that they could make tools from flint.
- Wisdom-Stone age people realised that fire could be used for heat, light, cooking and protection.

PE

- To know that Stone Age men worked as a group to hunt, build and that the women gathered food (to create a dance to show this).

Stones and Bones

